A medium in a trance

WITH WINDS OF MORE THAN 110 MPH: 4.

EAST COAST LANDFALL: 2, 1
with winds more than 110 mph.

COMMENT: "If 50 people or more get on the beach and pray that the hurricane shifted around out to sea not to hurt anyone else, these hurricanes can be averted."

Elizabeth, trance medium

HER CREDENTIALS: Trance medium Elizabeth Baron of Goose Creek has predicted hurricane risk for at least one Lowcountry beach resident for a number of years. The widely sought-after medium is the author of the soon-to-be-released "The Journey Within." For us, Baron worked while lying on a white couch in an art-decorated suburban home with a chessboard on the table. She sang to herself, dropped into the deep and answered questions asked by an onlooker. Baron said she believes she channels a 14th-century nun.
